

Human Geography

Day	Lesson	Expectations	Activities	Resources
1	Nature of Human Systems	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> describe the characteristics of human systems use graphic organizers to clarify and interpret geographic information use different types of maps to interpret geographic relationships, including changes over time in a specific location 	Complexity of Transportation Systems	Ontario road map, Making Connections
2			Interconnectedness of Systems at Home	Making Connections
3			Infrastructure Affecting the Natural Environment	Historical and base maps of the local community
4	Urban and Rural Landscapes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> compare different ways of providing human systems for a territory and areas in southern Canada assess how the effects of urban growth alter the natural environment distinguish between the characteristics of urban and rural environments use a reasoned argument to identify the best place to live in Canada and justify their choice identify and describe the technologies used in geographic inquiry use graphic organizers to clarify and interpret geographic information 	Settlement Patterns	Making Connections , Optional GIS activity
5			Provinces and Territories	Access to internet to research statistics
6			Where Do You Want to Live?
7	Land Use Planning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> evaluate the impact of change on a selected planning project make planning decisions concerning a regional community after studying its existing natural and human systems identify criteria with which to evaluate the effect of government land use policy on planning in the local community gather geographic information from primary sources and secondary source to research a geographic issue make planning decisions concerning a regional community after studying its existing natural and human systems 	Types of Urban Land Uses	Making Connections , base maps of the local community
8			The Evolution of a City
9			Local Government Affecting Development	Guest speaker, site plans of a subdivision, colour overheads.
10-11			Revitalizing the Local Community	Base maps of the local community

Day	Lesson	Expectations	Activities	Resources
12	Demographics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> analyse variations in population density and use their findings to explain overall population patterns identify and explain the factors influencing demographics and migration in Canada identify and describe the technologies used in geographic inquiry use appropriate statistical methods and categories of data in geographic analysis, observing accepted conventions 	The Study of Populations	Making Connections, News in Review
13			Population Density	Colour overheads, optional GIS activity
14			Historical Trends in Population Growth	Graph paper
15	First Nations Land Claims	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> analyse the location pattern of recent First Nation land claims in Canada use different types of maps to interpret geographic relationships, including changes over time in a specific location 	The Treaty Process and Land Claims in Canada	Making Connections, colour overheads, optional guest speaker
16	Culture	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> identify and explain the factors influencing demographics and migration in Canada recommend ways in which individuals can contribute to the quality of life in their home, local ecozone, province, nation, and the world illustrate and explain the regional distribution patterns of various peoples across Canada recognize the similarities among cultures and the need to respect cultural differences identify and describe examples of Canadian art that reflect natural or cultural landscapes 	The Canadian Mosaic	Colour overheads
17			Art Imitating Life	(student collected)
18			A Multicultural Celebration	(student collected)
19			Improving Quality of Life	Internet access or information sheets on selected individuals, Me to We: Turning Self-Help on Its Head
20-22	Culminating Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> describe the components and patterns of Canada's spatial organization demonstrate an understanding of the regional diversity of Canada's natural and human systems analyse local and regional factors that affect Canada's natural and human systems communicate the results of geographic inquiries, for different audiences and purposes, using a variety of forms and including geographic visual supports, both and geotechnological 	Tracing a Culture into Canada	