

International Environmental Organizations:

Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change

- The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change assesses scientific, technical and socio- economic information relevant for the understanding of climate change, its potential impacts and options for adaptation and mitigation.
- It was jointly created by United Nations Environment Program and the World Meteorological Organization.

Principles or Purposes

Scope (Breadth of Issues Covered)

Universality or Membership

Costs to Canada

Benefits for Canada

Benefits for Others

Resources

- www.ipcc.ch
-
-
-