

Greening the Community Report Rubric

Criteria	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
Study Area Description	The area being studied is thoroughly described in a local community context.	The area being studied is described with considerable detail.	The area being studied is described with some detail.	The area being studied is described with limited detail.
Research Methodology	The procedures and resources used for the research process are thoroughly described.	The procedures and resources used for the research process are described with considerable detail.	The procedures and resources used for the research process are described with some detail.	The procedures and resources used for the research process are described with limited detail.
Challenges	The challenges faced during the research or in the plan itself are thoroughly described.	The challenges faced during the research or in the plan itself are described with considerable detail.	The challenges faced during the research or in the plan itself are described with some detail.	The challenges faced during the research or in the plan itself are described with limited detail.
History of the Area	The history of the area being studied is thoroughly described.	The history of the area being studied is described with considerable detail.	The history of the area being studied is described with some detail.	The history of the area being studied is described with limited detail.
Current Situation in the Area	The status quo of the area being studied is thoroughly described.	The status quo of the area being studied is described with considerable detail.	The status quo of the area being studied is described with some detail.	The status quo of the area being studied is described with limited detail.
Proposals for Greening	The proposals suggested for greening the area are very meaningful, reasonable, and effective.	The proposals suggested for greening the area are appropriate.	The proposals suggested for greening the area are somewhat appropriate.	The proposals suggested for greening the area are not overly appropriate.
Visuals	The maps, diagrams, and/or photographs add meaningfully to the text of the paper.	The maps, diagrams, and/or photographs are appropriate.	The maps, diagrams, and/or photographs are somewhat appropriate.	Maps, diagrams, and/or photographs are present.
Bibliography	All information from outside sources are properly identified in the text and properly listed.	Embedded references are used for most sources and are listed at the end of the paper.	A list of resources used is provided at the end of the paper.	An attempt was made at referencing sources used in the paper.
Writing, Spelling, and Grammar	Language use is advanced and appropriate. There are no spelling or grammar errors.	Language use is appropriate. There are not many spelling or grammar errors.	Language use is satisfactory. There are some spelling and grammar errors.	Language use is below grade level. There are many spelling and grammar errors.
Presentation	The presentation conveyed all of the required material in an engaging manner.	The presentation conveyed most of the required material with considerable success.	The presentation conveyed some of the required material with some success.	A presentation was delivered, but only conveyed the required material with limited success.