

The Korean War

June 25 1950-July 27, 1953

The end of World War II

The US and the PRC

North Korea Invades – June 25 1950

The United Nations

"furnish such assistance to the Republic of Korea as may be necessary to repel the armed attack and to restore international peace and security in the area."

Russian Boycott of the Security Council

The UN force

The Early stages of the War:

UN forces land at Inchon – Sept. 15 1950

To Cross or not to cross... that is the question...

"all constituent acts be taken . . . for the establishment of a unified, independent and democratic government in the sovereign state of Korea."

The Chinese – The Second stage of the War

General MacArthur

The Armistice –The Final Stages of the War

Outcomes of the Korean War

The 38th Parallel

Containment and the UN

Korea as a Buffer State

Korean Casualties

UN Casualties