

Patterns of Global Power Unit Plan

Day	Lesson	Expectations	Activities	Resources
1-2	Geopolitics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> analyse the changing spatial distribution of political systems around the world analyse the evolving global geopolitical role of a selected region or country and evaluate how its actions contribute to international cooperation or conflict analyse geopolitical relationships between selected countries and regions produce a variety of maps, diagrams, and charts, following accepted conventions, to illustrate local or global patterns and relationships 	Political Systems	Geopolitical readings, PowerPoint projector, miscellaneous food items for hook activity
3-4			Evolving Issues	Access to internet and/or recent newspapers
5			Why Can't We Be Friends?	Why Can't We Be Friends? (song) by Smashmouth
6	Sovereignty	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> analyse the economic and environmental effects of colonialism and neo-colonialism on selected countries predict geographic consequences of separation or independence for a region or cultural group that is now part of a larger country. explain the different points of view on a geographic issue that are, or might be, held by various stakeholders 	Colonialism
7-9			Nationalism	CBC News in Review (November 1997)
10	International Cooperation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> analyse the effects on the environment of various trade policies or agreements evaluate the effectiveness of an international agreement that has been designed to address global issues or protect the global commons 	Agreements	Internet access

Day	Lesson	Expectations	Activities	Resources
11		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> describe the structure, membership, and activities of various international economic alliances and agreements 	Alliances	Internet access
12	Improving the World	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> describe the contributions of individuals who have been influential in addressing global issues and evaluate the impact of their work explain the relevance to their own lives of the work on poverty, disease, and the environment done by governmental and non-governmental organizations communicate the results of geographic inquiries, for different audiences and purposes, using a variety of forms and including geographic visual supports, both conventional and geotechnological 	Individuals	Me to We: Turning Self-Help On Its Head (book)
13-15			Organizations	PowerPoint projector, internet access
16-18	Pay It Forward	•	Movie	Pay It Forward
19	Drawing Boundaries	•
20	Patterns of Global Power Unit Test	•	Test	